Katherine Chapman, who has provided a generous endowment to the Friends of the Library, was Assistant Director of the Lubbock City-County Library from 1967 to 1991. She and Bill Stewart, the library's director, formed a strong team of public servants, advancing library services in the Lubbock community. She passed away in February.

She and Mr. Stewart hired me in 1975 as a children's librarian, as the library had received two large federal grants, one for early childhood educational services and the other for a puppetry project. I was always grateful for this opportunity, and had lots of fun taking puppet shows, "Peter and the Wolf" and "Dragon Stew" to children in this area.

Mrs. Chapman provided strength and support for the goals of the library and was an excellent example of a strong work ethic. I will be forever thankful for the experiences I had under her tutelage.

BOOKSTORE UNDERGROUND

Many libraries around the nation have a bookstore sponsored by Friends. The idea for our Friends of the Library Bookstore spent a long time in incubation. It finally opened less than a year ago with a few shelves added to our Best Book Area.

Since then it has gone through several transformations. We now have expanded shelf space, expanded categories of books, and experts in each subject area providing their best books for sale. Since it is impossible to open the entire basement for shopping, we have provided the best sampling of books we can curate. If you need a book you don't see on the shelves, we can add it to a search list and let you know when we find it.

Come shop the FOL Bookstore, Saturdays from 10 AM till 2 PM, located in the Mahon Library Basement. Currently being featured are newly published books (2014 – 2017) in both fiction and non-fiction! The Bookstore is open to members only and membership is immediately available.

A Special Thank You to:

- Target (Marsha Sharp Fwy) for providing $200 gift card to purchase snacks, drinks, supplies,
- Dunkin Donuts for providing 5 dozen donuts and 5 Joes (coffee) for our Annual Event.
- Walmart $60 gift card donation for annual meeting.
- United Supermarkets, for donating paper bags and providing a drop off location at Frankford and 82nd St.
- Bolton Oil for donating boxes.
- and All of our wonderful patrons who donate items for us to sell- without you we wouldn't exist!

From the President

By Tony Kite

In 1967, Lyndon B Johnson was president, the British invasion was in full swing, we were getting deeper into the Vietnam conflict, and gasoline was 24.9 cents/gallon. In Lubbock a group of people who cared for the library system and the lives it touched undertook to begin officially as a non-profit entity to support the mission of the Lubbock City/County Library. Fifty years later, the Friends of the Lubbock Library is alive, well, and attempting to manage record donations and opportunities. Over the years, we have provided literally millions of dollars for the library.

Thanks to all our members and FOL-unteers who have made the FOL a success and will carry it into the future to the benefit of the Library and its service community. Happy Golden Anniversary.

Dollars and Sense

We started our 50th Anniversary year with a terrific Book Lovers' Half Price Sale in February. We sold over $21,500 worth of books, plus many memberships. Thank you to all of our great buyers!

We continued our 50th Anniversary celebration with a survey sent out by our Vision Committee. We hope you will all answer your surveys and deliver/mail/email them to us on or before the upcoming April 9th Annual Meeting. We want all of our members to have a say in the direction that FOL takes in the future. If you have not received yours, please email survey@lubbockfol.org with the word "survey" in the subject line and request one.

After the Annual Meeting, we are throwing a special 50th Anniversary Sale May 5th through the 8th. Please make plans to attend. We are working hard to restock all of our shelves for this special weekend. Your summer reading needs can be filled easily at this great sale. Or you may want to find something special for Mother's Day giving. We have some very special deals, harkening back to the earlier days of the FOL. It just makes sense to spend your book-buying dollars at the Friends of the Lubbock Public Library. See you there!

From the Online Director By Susan Stack

Online Sales is off to a great start for 2017! As of end of February, the sales for 2017 totaled $12,406 which was $1,716 over the same timeframe 2016.

FOL Online Sales consists of three sales venues: Abe Books, Half, and e-Bay. With the March numbers, it appears that for the first time e-Bay will produce slightly over $1,000 in sales by itself for the month!

Through the hard work of all our volunteers we anticipate another banner sales year in 2017!
