From the President...

by Desiree Freyburger

As the holidays approach, I always try to remind myself to slow down and count my blessings.

This year, I am so grateful for all of our amazing Friends of the Library members who took the time to write, email, sign petitions, and show up for city council meetings! Not only were your voices heard, but they made a huge difference. As the city goes forward with its future plans for the Lubbock Libraries, they now know how vital and fundamentally important our libraries are to our community. Thank you for supporting your libraries and making your voices heard! As Henry Ward Beecher said, "A library is not a luxury, but one of the necessities of life."

And don't forget to shop our Winter Book Sale for the perfect gifts for your friends and family, as well as treasures for yourselves. May your holidays be filled with blessings and wonderful books!

From the Book Sale VPs...

by Loraine Oglesby
and Louise Ramsay

Our Winter Book Sale will take place on Friday and Saturday, December 7 and 8, 2018, 9:00 AM til 5:00 PM, in the basement of Mahon Library. Come and join us as we start the holiday season! It's a great time to do your Christmas shopping. We have re-stocked all of our shelves since the September sale. We have a large selection of like-new books in ALL areas, especially children's and Better Books. We accept cash, checks, credit and debit cards. Bring your Christmas list and take home some treasures!

From the Online Sales Director...

by Susan Stack

The holiday season is starting soon, and within that time frame, the Winter Book Sale.

This year has been very busy for all the volunteers within our organization, whether involved in the floor sales or Online.

From an online perspective, I am pleased to report that during the month of October, we have exceeded our full revenue plan, and we are expecting a strong November and December.

Thank you for all the support that Online has received not only from the volunteers, but from the general membership.

Book donations are welcome at any time.

Donations of books can be made at the following free-standing huts:

Groves Branch Library
5520 19th St

Godeke Branch Library
5034 Frankford Ave.

United Supermarket
8010 Frankford Ave

There are also yellow donation bins inside the door at the following Library branches:

Mahon
1306 19th St.

Groves
5520 19th St

Patterson
1836 Parkway Dr.

Large Donations

Our huts and bins are not quite capable of handling large donations. If you have a large donation, it will be welcomed at the Mahon basement, during regular volunteer working hours. If you call ahead, we can be sure to have someone to assist you.

Also, in making donations to the sheds, boxed and bagged books are appreciated. The books arrive in better shape and hold their value for resale.

Dollars and Sense

Thank you to everyone who turned out for our big annual Fall Book Sale! We had a great sale and gained over 200 new members. This is what your Friends of the Lubbock Public Library is all about.

The holiday season is fast approaching and we want you to make our annual Winter Book Sale a part of your gift-buying plan. The Winter Book Sale will be held December 7th and 8th, from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM. Everyone is welcome!

This fall your FOL has replaced the Book Donation Shed at the Groves Branch with a larger and brand new shed. If you live in the Groves area, your book donations can now be easily handled in this new structure.

So far in 2018, we have donated over $141,000 in goods and services to the Lubbock Public Library system, with about $32,000 more to go during this year. We have paid for leased books, audio books, e-books, children's and adults' book groups, a new and better internal control system, education of library staff, the Make Kids Count program with the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, and so much more. The money you spend at our sales goes to advance the cause of literacy for the children of Lubbock, who are our future, as well as all the current patrons of our library and all of its branches.

So, please take advantage of our Winter Book Sale to find something perfect for everyone on your holiday gift list. And always take home something for yourself, too!

It just makes sense to spend your book-buying dollars with the Friends of the Lubbock Public Library. Thank you for your continued support of our mission.
